

New Zealand Riding Pony Society (INCORPORATED)

The Society is affiliated to the Royal Agricultural Society of New Zealand.

About the Riding Pony Society:

- ✓ The New Zealand Riding Pony Society provides classes for registered Riding Ponies throughout New Zealand including the NZ Royal and the NZ Horse of the Year Show. Classes sponsored by the New Zealand Riding Pony Society held at numerous shows throughout New Zealand include those for: in-hand adult and young-stock ponies, ridden show ponies, ridden show/saddle hunter ponies, and novice/newcomer ponies (the Melville Black Memorial awards). Winners of NZ Riding Pony Society sponsored classes receive a NZ Riding Pony Society sash.
- ✓ All registered Riding Ponies are entered into a stud book which will be on line in the near future.
- ✓ From time to time the Society awards additional prizes to winners of Riding Pony society sponsored classes (e.g., monogrammed vests for riders, monogrammed show rugs for winning ponies, monogrammed saddle cloths for winning ponies).
- ✓ The Society encourages, and supports the breeding of Riding Ponies - with an over-riding emphasis on correctness of conformation to ensure that these show ponies are sound, purposeful children's mounts.

Members of the Society:

- ✓ receive two (full colour) informative newsletters each year
- ✓ can publicise their ponies and/or studs in the Society's newsletter
- ✓ are entitled to members' prices for the registration of ponies
- ✓ can enter a pony in the Melville Black Memorial events
- ✓ can enter a pony in society's Performance Competition
- ✓ can enter the society's Young Producer of the Year competition (if aged 17-30 years)
- ✓ (by way of their subscription) support NZ Riding Pony Society's objectives (including its awards e.g., sashes, rider's vest, dress rugs, and cash prizes that are competed for throughout NZ)
