Classification/Explanation

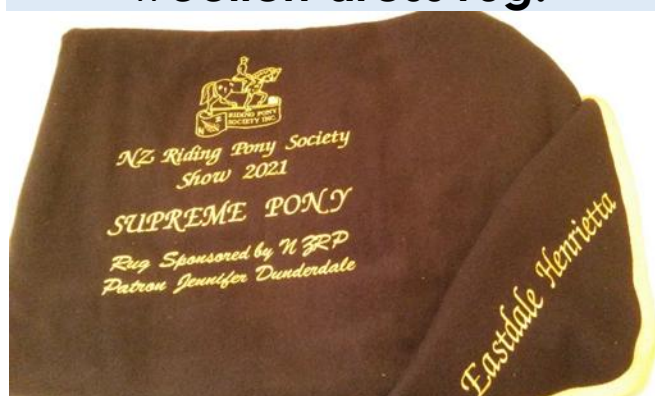

INTERMEDIATE SHOW RIDING TYPE

(a UK showing section)

For the fourth scheduled show we have within our schedule an Intermediate Show Riding Type class, with our own slight adjustment to the concept. An Intermediate Show Riding Type horse does not exceed 158cm. In the UK they are a show animal and may be a small Hack, Riding Horse, Saddle Hunter, or Working Hunter type. At this show the Intermediate Show Riding Type horse may be a Park Hack, Hack, Riding Horse or Saddle Hunter. These horses are to be ridden by a person up to 19 years of age, as this section focuses on supporting the transition of young riders into the show horse sections by having them compete in an age-capped event. An Intermediate Show Riding Type horse class is judged using the same criteria as an open showing class with the additional aspect - judges take into consideration the suitability of the horse to transition a young rider into the horse showing rings.

CLASS 18 INTERMEDIATE SHOW RIDING TYPE – open to park hacks, saddle hunters & riding horses over 148cm & not exceeding 158cm, rider 19 years & under. JUDGED IN THE PARK HACK SECTION.

SUPREME PONY award includes, made to measure monogrammed blue woollen dress rug.
